

WRITING TO BE HEARD

with Christine Hemp

NOVEMBER 12-13
9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

NONFICTION FOR THE SHORT ATTENTION SPAN

INTENSIVE WRITING WORKSHOP

RADIO COMMENTARY   PODCASTS   BLOG DISPATCHES   FLASH NONFICTION   LITERARY ESSAYS

Compose pithy pieces that match the immediacy of our culture with the heft of literary merit. Woo your audience not by shock and awe but by authenticity and power. For writers preparing to set their work loose in the world. Enrollment limited to five. Includes a private conference with each participant. Fee: $350

CHRISTINE HEMP has aired her poems and essays on NPR's Morning Edition. She has received the Harvard University Conway Award for Teaching Writing and a Washington State Artist Trust Fellowship for Literature. Her poetry collection That Fall was selected for the New Women's Poetry Series at Finishing Line Press. She teaches creative nonfiction and poetry at the University of Iowa Summer Writing Festival and also writes, produces and hosts a program on 91.9 KPTZ public radio called, "The Hempsonian Institute of Higher Yearning."

The Writers' Workshoppe
234 Taylor Street
Port Townsend, WA
360-379-2617